SVF Board President Harriet Derwingson welcomed the many guests and congratulated the volunteers for their high levels of commitment to the organizations and to their community. Barbara Hughes, President and CEO of Community Foundation Sonoma County, extended thanks to “all the Stars for showing us how we can respect our natural resources as community assets,” and gave special recognition to Marilyn Smith, “a tireless, exuberant community volunteer devoted to Quarryhill Botanical Garden,” who passed away in early July.

Dick Drew, the chair of the Coordinating Council for Youth Development in Sonoma, described the successful launch of SVF’s Youth Initiative summer program, implemented in conjunction with the Sonoma Valley unified school district. Encouraged by donor support, he emphasized the continued need for resources to address the challenges facing Sonoma Valley youth.

After the awards ceremony, Harriet Derwingson closed with words of Margaret Mead: “Never doubt that a small group of committed people can change the world. Indeed, it is the only thing that ever has.” She thanked the group for leading by example and inspiring others in the community.

Sonoma Valley Fund (SVF) was established in December 2006 as an affiliate of Community Foundation Sonoma County. Its mission is to strengthen our community through philanthropy and legacy giving. SVF is a resource for donors who wish to make charitable gifts, especially as part of their estate planning, to preserve and enhance the quality of life in Sonoma Valley. Donors may make gifts through a variety of programs to benefit specific causes or rely on SVF's Board of Directors who are long-term, active residents of Sonoma Valley. Since inception, it has awarded more than $185,000 in grants to local nonprofit organizations. For more information, visit www.sonomavalleyfund.org.
